

1 February 1954

The Honorable Clarence B. Randall
Chairman
Commission on Foreign Economic Policy
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Clarence:

I appreciate your transmitting to me so promptly a copy of the Report to the President and the Congress by the Commission on Foreign Economic Policy.

This is a vitally important document and I am reading it with the keenest interest. I recall my appearance before your committee in the early days of its work.

I hope to have a chance to see you at your convenience to gain some of the impressions from your studies which possibly were not included in the written report.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

January 25, 1954

Honorable Allen Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

The Commission on Foreign Economic Policy has completed its work, and I have had the honor of transmitting its Report to the President and to the Congress.

Because of your interest, and the great assistance you gave us through your testimony before us, I am happy to send you herewith one of the first copies.

And once more permit me to thank you for your kindness in appearing before us and giving us the benefit of your wisdom and experience.

Sincerely yours,

Clarence B. Randall
Chairman
